

Ridley Road

Following the unfortunate repeated appearance of a JCC tie on the BBC TV series, Ridley Road, the PR firm acting for the production company responsible for the show has assured us that the following steps would be taken:

- A letter would be sent to the JCC President, apologising for the concerns generated by the inadvertent use of the JCC tie.
- The production company will as soon as possible digitally alter all footage so that in all future viewings (e.g. those on BBC iPlayer) the tie will no longer show the crest.
- In addition, they will be contacting the costume suppliers to tell them not to hire out the tie in response to a request simply for a striped tie.

I would like publicly to thank Jonathan Silverman for his assistance in helping the club to achieve what I believe to be a satisfactory outcome to this issue.
